MAYNARD OF LONDON

ARMS:

CREST:

4 Phil. and Mary [1557/8], John Maynard, esq., died seised of the deanery of Stafford, and left three daughters, Frances, Elizabeth, and Susannah, to inherit it. Elizabeth married ..... Sparry, and died, seised of all, 24 Eliz [1581/2]. who had issue William Sparry, aged 20, who sold it to William Crompton of Stone, whose son, Thomas, sold part of it to George Cradock. His son, Thomas Crompton, sold the hundred acres of Whitgrave, the last parcel of it, to Richard Wilrich of Whitgrave, with the manor of Whitgrave. This John Maynard purchased the deanery of lord Stafford, to whom Edw. VI. had just before given it. [ERDESWICK (1844) 144]

John Maynard of London citizen and mercer c1500-1557
d 6 Nov 1557; Will (...) 6 Nov 1557/.....
(by purchase from Henry Baron Stafford, lord of Whitgreave) 1552/3-(bequeathed the manor of Whitgreave to his wife for life with remainder to his eldest daughter Frances) chn: Frances Maynard [1] [coheir] b c1539; (aged 18) 1557; m1 ....; m2 John Crompton of London
Elizabeth Maynard [2] [coheir] b c1540; (aged 17) 1557 below
Susanna Maynard [3] [coheir] c 13 Mar 1544.5 St Pancras Soper Lane; (aged 13) 1557

Elizabeth Maynard [2] [coheir] c1540-1582
m ..... Sparry
d 5 Aug 1582
(aged 17) 1557
chn: William Sparry b c1562; (aged 20) 1582

(9/12/04)